

I have been a member of the Indiana no call list since its inception. I would hope that the laws regarding to this list would stay as they are, The members of CBA do not need to have the permission of any organization to harass their customers or anyone who has accounts with them.